Singer Hill Grace Brethren Church

Invites You to

Sunday Morning Church at the Jackson Heritage Festival

200 Adams Avenue, Vinco

WHEN: Sunday, July 21st TIME: 10:30 a.m.

Singer Hill Grace Brethren Church will be holding their Sunday morning service under the big tent at the 10th Annual Jackson Heritage Festival. Pastor Drew Walther sees this service as a great opportunity to not only show support for the local community but as a way to bring people together to worship the Lord. The service is open to everyone and nursery will be provided in the Senior Center. Please plan to come a few minutes early or stay following the service for free coffee and doughnuts. For additional information or questions call 322-4376 or 410-3677.

PARKING: Parking is available anywhere around the Veterans Park area as well as the Vinco Shopping Center. Free Shuttle Transportation will be available from all Heritage Festival parking areas. Handicapped Parking available with Shuttle Transportation if needed or handicapped passengers may be dropped off near the Festival tent before parking the vehicle. If you need special accommodations, please ask one of the traffic attendents, and they will assist you.
